Prestigious Georgia Contractor of the Year Award Ceremony
WGST's Jim Gossett to Emcee

ATLANTA, GA– The Atlanta Chapter of the National Association for the Remodeling Industry (NARI) will hold its 11th Annual Contractor of the Year (COTY) Award Ceremonies on Tuesday, December 14, 2003 at the J.W. Marriott Hotel in Buckhead, 3300 Lenox Road.

The highly competitive and coveted COTY Award, recognizes the highest in quality workmanship and professional standards within the remodeling industry. Contractors compete across 16 categories ranging from Best Residential Kitchen to Entire House Design.

The black tie event is the culmination of months of hard work and deliberation. Contractors must complete an extensive application process, which includes storyboards and electronic images. An impartial panel of judges determines the winner in each category. Winners say this type of recognition enhances their image within the industry and with prospective customers.

This year's event will begin with cocktails at 6:30 p.m. followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. The Awards Presentation begins at 8:30 p.m. The cost is $85.00 per person. WGST radio personality Jim Gossett (Kim Peterson's News Maker Line) will emcee.

About NARI: The National Association of the Remodeling Industry is the only association dedicated solely to the remodeling industry. With more than 6,000 members nationally and more than 250 in Georgia, NARI brings together people who work in the remodeling industry who are dedicated to being the best resource for knowledge and training in their fields.
